Mr. John D. Small
Chairman
Munitions Board
Room 3F803, The Pentagon

Dear Mr. Small:

In order that the Central Intelligence Agency may effectively carry out its responsibilities for coordination in the field of foreign economic intelligence, as recently defined by the National Security Council in NSCID 15, there has been established an Economic Intelligence Committee with Dr. Max F. Millikan, Assistant Director for Research and Reports of this Agency, as Chairman. The terms of reference for this Committee were approved by the Intelligence Advisory Committee on 17 May 1951.

It is requested therefore that you nominate someone familiar with your total foreign economic research effort to represent your Board on this Committee at the earliest practicable date. Your representative will be an Associate Member, and as such will not be asked to sit at every meeting of the Committee. There will, however, be many occasions when it would be useful to have the Munitions Board participate in Committee deliberations. In order to further clarify the role of your Board in the work of this Committee, Mr. Millikan will arrange to meet with you at your earliest convenience.
